Continuation of Substance of Interview including description of the general nature of what was agreed to if an agreement was reached, or any other comments: The applicants' representative presented proposed amendments to the claim language, and one in particular was the topic of the interview. The examiner and the applicants representative agreed that this limitation would not be worthwhile to include in the claims. The examiner stated that the other amendments would be considered upon filing of the official response to the previous office action. The applicants representative pointed particularly to dependant claim as containing more limiting amendments which the examiner agreed would receive thorough consideration upon filing. The examiner also agreed that if upon consideration of the official response does not appear to place the claims in condition for allowance, the examiner will look for possible amendments that would place the claims in condition for allowance, and if the examiner finds allowable subject matter, the examiner will phone the applicants' representative in order to expedite the allowance.
